Having failed to win any of the last six games against Bayern on home t urf, Dortmund💷 will have been eager to keep things tight early on versus Der Rekordmeister. However, their plans were thrown out of💷 the window as the visitors put them to the sword in the opening stages. Thomas Tuchel's side needed less than💷 four minutes to break the deadlock, with Dayot U pamecano heading Leroy Sané's corner beyond Gregor Kobel, and they were soon💷 two to the good when Sané laid a pass on a plate for Kane to tap home. Die Roten displayed💷 an intensity that was missing from their midweek DFB Cup defeat to Saarbücken, and Edin Terzi~ 's men struggled to deal💷 with it. They did improve as the half progressed, and came wit hin inches of halving the arrears on the stroke💷 of half-time through Do nyell Malen, whose effort flied agonisingly wide of the post. However, no Dortmu nd supporter could really argue💷 with the two-goal deficit at the interv al.

Almost immediately after the restart, Kobel needed to produce an import ant stop to deny💷 Jamal Musiala, before Noussair Mazraoui fired over fro m the resultant corner. Dortmund had to improve after the interval and, toԁ 83; their credit, they did pose more of an attacking threat. Their best opportun ity fell to Marco Reus, who was only💷 thwarted by a strong Manuel Neuer hand after striking on the turn. Bayern remained dangerous, though, and Kobel ne eded to💷 be alert to keep out Sané and Musiala following a pair of swift counter-attacks. Midway thorough the second period, Tuchel's💷 t eam thought they had further extended their advantage, but Kane was in an offsid e position before assisting Musiala. However, the💷 30-year-old had his s econd of the game shortly after, sweeping home Kingsley Coman's square pass.
Substitute Youssoufa Moukoko wasted a💷 fantastic opportunity to grab a
