A tweet from Phil Spencer, Microsoft Gaming s CEO, r ead: We are pleased to announce that Microsoft and @PlayStation have signed 🤶 a binding agreement to keep Call of Duty on PlayStation following the ac quisition of Activision Blizzard. We look forward to 🤶 a future where p layers globally have more choice to play their favorite games.
In the United States, the FTC had argued 🤶 the acquisition dea l would hurt consumers whether they played video games on consoles or had subscri ptions because Microsoft would have 🤶 an incentive to shut out rivals like Sony Group.
However, Judge Jacqueline Scott Corley ruled on 11 June: The FTC has & #129334; not shown it is likely to succeed on its assertion the combined firm w ill probably pull Call of Duty from 🤶 Sony PlayStation, or that its own ership of Activision content will substantially lessen competition in the video game library subscription and 🤶 cloud gaming markets.
To address the FTC s concerns, Microsoft had agreed to license Call of Duty to rivals, including a 10-year 🤶 contract with Nintendo, contingen t on the merger closing.
On Sunday, Microsoft did not disclose the duration of the agreement wit h Sony.
